

Volunteers clean NIT-K Beach

Sevadal units of NITK-Surathkal undertook a beach cleaning campaign on Sunday in Mangaluru. ■ SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT MANGALURU

Volunteers of National Service Scheme and Sevadal of National Institute of Technology-Karnataka, Surathkal, undertook cleaning campaign of NITK beach at Surathkal near here on September 4, Sunday.

The cleaning was undertaken as a part of Swatchatha Pakhwada, an initiative of Union Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change. NITK Director (in-charge) G.C. Mohan Kumar led the cleaning drive along with his colleagues and student volunteers who cleared over 500 kgs of plastic and other waste.

Volunteers cleared the trash lying between the Surathkal Light House till the end of NITK property for a distance of about 2 km. Plastic waste, used liquor bottles and other non bio-degradable items were removed from the Beach during the drive.

Dean Student Welfare, Narendranath, Joint Registrar Ram Mohan Y. and others were present.