

Forum holds kite flying, sand art events to mark NITK's 'Udaan'

MANGALURU, DHNS: On account of Makara Sankranti festival, the Artists Forum of NITK organised Udaan, a kite flying competition, on the shores of NITK Beach on Saturday.

The Artists' Forum NITK conducted its flagship event, Udaan, a beach festival in the backdrop of the scenic Arabian sea.

More than 1,000 people, including locals and students in and around NITK, attended the event.

The beach fiesta has been a prominent part of NITK for about 15 years. The fiesta contains food, refreshing beverages, photos, music, games, stalls and kites among others.

Students participated in the kite flying and sand art events enthusiastically.

Professors and students participated in games, like tug-of-war, sack race and twister. There were stalls of mehndi, temporary tattoo and hair spray, hair braids and polaroid photographs.

People participate in the sand art event during 'Udaan' programme held on the shores of NITK Beach in Surathkal.