

CITY DIGEST

Technical talk hosted at NITK Surathkal

NITK Surathkal hosted a technical talk and panel discussion on 'Careers in Semiconductor and Silicon Dandi March (Make in India for IC Design)' respectively, on Wednesday. This event was held in alignment with the national initiative 'India's Techade: Chips for Viksit Bharat', where Prime Minister Narendra Modi laid the foundation stone (virtually) for three semiconductor facilities on Wednesday. The technical talk was delivered by Rathnakar S Bhat, CEO and director at Karmic Design Private Limited, shedding light on the diverse career opportunities in the semiconductor industry.

Workshop on share market

Winners Venture, a stock market training institute, will organise a free workshop on 'Share Market' on Sunday. The workshop aims to provide knowledge about the share market among the public. Call-8050791754, stated a release.

Awareness talk on cancer

The Manel Srinivas Nayak Institute of Management (MSNIM) organised an awareness talk on gynaecological cancer featuring Dr Sangeetha K, associate professor at Srinivas Medical College, on Tuesday.

Fulfil demands, says Okkoota

Master Book Keepers (MBK) and Local Community Resource persons (LCRP) of Sanjivini Okkoota have urged the government to fulfill their demands including regularisation of their services. MBK and LCRP state union president Rudramma said that the MBK and LCRP have been working for the betterment of Sanjivini Okkoota, the self-help group unions, by educating the members about government schemes. There are about 40,000 MBK and LCRP in the state. The MBK and LCRP held a protest in front of Suvarna Soudha in Belagavi during the assembly session in December, urging the government for the fulfilment of 10 demands. The main demands were regularisation of services, direct benefit transfer of their honorarium to their bank accounts and providing identity cards, uniforms and health insurance.