Registration and choice filling for 'Central Seat Allocation Board (CSAB) - 2024 Special Round Counselling' for admission to vacant seats at NIT + System will start on Wednesday. Around 13,500 seats are lying vacant in NIT + System institutes.

The NIT-K said in a release on Tuesday that the joint-counselling and seat allocation to the NIT + System, was conducted by Joint Seat Allocation Authority (JoSAA 2024). Out of 42,200 seats available in NIT+ System, about 41,000 seats were allotted to candidates till the final round (fifth round) of JoSAA counselling and about 28,700 candidates accepted the allotted seats.

The vacant seats will be filled through the CSAB Special Round Counselling organised by the NIT-K.

There will be two special rounds of counselling to fill the vacant seats. Candidates meeting the eligibility criteria as per JoSAA-2024 Business Rules can participate in the 'CSAB 2024 Special Round Counselling' for NIT+ System.

Those who have participated in JoSAA 2024 and willing to upgrade their seats and fresh candidates meeting the eligibility criteria can participate in the 'CSAB 2024 Special Round Counselling'.

All eligible candidates should register afresh at the CSAB portal (<https://csab.nic.in>).
